A high-angle, close-up view of the driver's side of a Lamborghini car's interior. The steering wheel is black with yellow stitching and the Lamborghini logo in the center. Behind it is a digital instrument cluster showing a tachometer, speedometer (261 km/h), and other vehicle data. To the right of the steering wheel is a large, vertical infotainment screen displaying a car's status and various menu options. The center console and door panels feature bright yellow leather upholstery with black stitching. A black cup holder is visible on the right side of the dashboard. The overall aesthetic is sleek and sporty, characteristic of the Lamborghini brand.
